

I am writing to express my concern over the possibility of K-LOVE losing a number of their FM translators. K-LOVE is a source of safe, encouraging and uplifting music as well as caring hosts. This is a rarity on radio these days. If K-LOVE were to be replaced by other programming it would be such a disservice to those listeners. For some, K-LOVE provides their only means of refuge and peace in the fast-paced society we find ourselves in. It is definitely in the best interest of the listening public for K-LOVE to continue to be aired on FM translators. So many people turn to and rely upon K-LOVE for daily spiritual encouragement and growth.
